

Inline Homogenizers

Features :

The inline high shear mixer offers a possibility to pump, disperse, homogenize and emulsify products with one and the same equipment with particle size reduction to microns size.

The inline mixer is a perfect solution for any production plant where the process requires a mixer but vertical or tank bottom tank cannot be installed due to shortage of space.

Application :

Production of syrups, emulsions, cream, cheese, flavored milk and etc.

